Patriotic parade canceled, treasure hunt doubtful

By DAVID GREGSON
Sentinel Staff Writer

Of two major North Shores annual events, one definitely will not be a part of the 200th anniversary celebration this year and the other is in grave financial difficulty and may be canceled.

The annual Kiddies Treasure Hunt, which regularly draws more than 3,000 children to Mission Bay, will mark its 10th year—if enough money can be raised by Memorial Day. The popular event, sponsored by the Pacific Beach Town Council and the Pacific Beach Junior Woman's Club, needs money for 3,000 prizes.

The second annual "I Am Proud to Be an American Day Parade" has been canceled. Originally scheduled for April 20 on Garnet Ave., the event was written off the 200th anniversary schedule when the sponsors, the Pacific Beach Junior Woman's Club, could not enlist the services of military and professional bands.

Mrs. Fran Norman, co-chairman of the 10th annual Kiddies Treasure Hunt, said that project ran into trouble because of the condition of the Pacific Beach Town Council's treasury. Will Gamble, co-chairman with Mrs. Norman and council executive director, has sent letters to local men's clubs asking each for $75 for the event.

"The major prizes, a tricycle and bicycle, usually are donated," said Mrs. Norman. In the treasure hunt, youngsters search for colored capsules buried in the sand of Crown Point Shores. Different-colored capsules have different prize values and are traded in at special booths.

Children come from throughout the city to attend the Memorial Day event. For the last nine years the council has made sure each youngster does not go away without some sort of prize.

This year there may be no prizes for anyone.

Mrs. Norman also is chairman of the "I Am Proud to Be an American Day Parade." While it is canceled this year, Mrs. Norman said things are hopeful for next year and that the club has agreed to sponsor it then.

"We had the okay from the police for the parade here this year," said Mrs. Norman. "But this was not enough. It turned out that military units could not participate. They simply had too many other engagements. Other independent bands were tied up because of the 200th."

Since the sponsors hoped to make the second parade "bigger and better" than the one before, it was impossible to go through with further plans.

"We will start planning next year's parade in August," said Mrs. Norman. She said the formula will be the same as it was for the first one. Local residents are encouraged to make patriotic floats and costumes. Those who march in the parade are invited to make themselves up to look like Lincoln, Washington, Jefferson, Franklin and other famous Americans.

Mrs. Dorothy O'Regan, executive secretary of the Pacific Beach Town Council, said there is hope this week for the hunt, since a $75 donation has been received from the Pacific Beach Kiwanis Club.

Donations from all service clubs will be welcomed, said Mrs. O'Regan. The goal is $350.

Law enforcement, cooperation prevent riot in North Shores

Rigid law enforcement and the cooperation of local residents helped prevent the North Shores area from becoming another Palm Springs hippie convention this Easter vacation, according to Capt. Ralph Davis, head of the San Diego Police Department's Northern Division.

He said there was hardly any trouble at all in the area, except for a "happening" on Mariners' Point Easter Sunday. At least 700 persons gathered in Mission Bay shortly after noon. Police records show 30 arrests of adults, servicemen and juveniles.

"This incident, billed as a 'happening,' was advertised way in advance by an individual from Ocean Beach," Davis said. He added it was difficult to tell where all those involved came from, since most of those arrested gave local addresses.

"The only problem was during a short period while they were throwing rocks and bottles, and one hit a beach patrol wagon," he said. Arrests were made for drunkenness and for use of narcotics, he said, but there was no police order made for dispersement of the crowd. The Mariners' Point gathering started shortly after noon Easter Sunday and built to a high point of 700 persons.

Davis said the previous Northern Division head, Capt. Michael Sgobba, met with many persons and groups in the beach area before Easter vacation began. Sgobba encouraged persons to avoid renting to groups of youths.

Lt. Bob Davis, community relations officer for the police department, said this Easter vacation was not different from any other as far as he knew. "It was relatively quiet," he said. "The climate here in San Diego is not conducive to the same things as Palm Springs," he said. By climate, he explained, he means the attitude of citizens and youths living here. "They don't get that rowdy," said Lt. Davis.

There were no problems at all in Ocean Beach, he said. Before Easter youngsters from the In Between, a youth meeting hall on Newport Ave., said they had learned of handbills distributed across the nation calling for a riot here during the holiday period.

Capt. Davis said the Mariners' Point crowd dispersed Easter Sunday after the sun began to go down and the air became chilly. However, several servicemen, adults and juveniles were taken into custody by officers.

Officers were stationed at the only exit to Bonita Cove until about 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

The police said there were handbills passed out in Palm Springs telling people to go to the San Diego area.

TRIUMPHANT FINALE

There were 140 entries and 250 spectators in the Ocean Beach Recreation Center's Easter Parade of Wheels Sunday. Winners were Theresa McKeown, 11 (right), and Scott Stepanof, 10, who walked with and pushed a float, respectively. The float was the entry of the Ocean Beach Recreation Center and was in competition with floats from seven local elementary schools. Presenting the trophy is Mrs. Diane Miramontes, recreation director at the center.

Resignation accepted 'with regret' in OB

Members of the Ocean Beach Town Council board of directors met in a closed session Monday and prepared a statement accepting the resignation of Mrs. Fran Hanks from the post of executive director.

The statement reads, "The directors of the Ocean Beach Town Council . . . accepted the resignation of Mrs. Fran Hanks as executive director. The board appreciates her work and has accepted the resignation with regret."

The council board is now seeking a person to fill the post vacated by Mrs. Hanks. The new post, however, will bear the title of executive secretary. The paid general secretary, Mrs. Peggy Johnson, will remain in the council office at 1835 Bacon St. from 9 a.m. to noon each day.

Ned Titlow, newly appointed Monday as chairman of both the newsletter and publicity committees, said a letter will be sent to Mrs. Hanks in which the board will express its appreciation for "devoted service and many hours of work."

Titlow said a presentation is being planned for the next board meeting at which Mrs. Hanks will receive "personal recognition" for her work. A committee was appointed to select a gift for the presentation. Committee members include Mrs. Pauline Sneed, the Rev. Willard Laatz and Ray Perine.

The next board meeting of the council will be held on April 17 in the clubhouse of the Ocean Beach Woman's Club. At that time a new president will be chosen, along with three additional directors.

Future public meetings, as yet unscheduled, include one on the offshore oil drilling issue and another on the possibility of a YMCA here, according to Titlow. There also will be a special meeting of the directors today to discuss "the responsibility of directors and the general members," according to Titlow. The meeting will be held in the Bethany Lutheran church parish hall.

Mrs. Page Cummins, council president pro tempore, is charged with the duty of advertising and securing names for Mrs. Hanks' replacement. At the April 17 meeting a committee will be appointed to interview and decide on the hiring of the new executive secretary.

The Sentinel has been told there are three persons most likely to be considered for the office of president at the April 17 meeting. They are Titlow, Henry Fuchs and the Rev. Robert Fehlman.

Fourth of July parade chooses grand marshal

George A. Scott, San Diego civic leader and businessman, has been named grand marshal of the eighth annual Clairemont Fourth of July Parade.

Mrs. Ronald A. Wilson, general chairman, said the parade is open to any organization in the city. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Wilson at 278-9571.

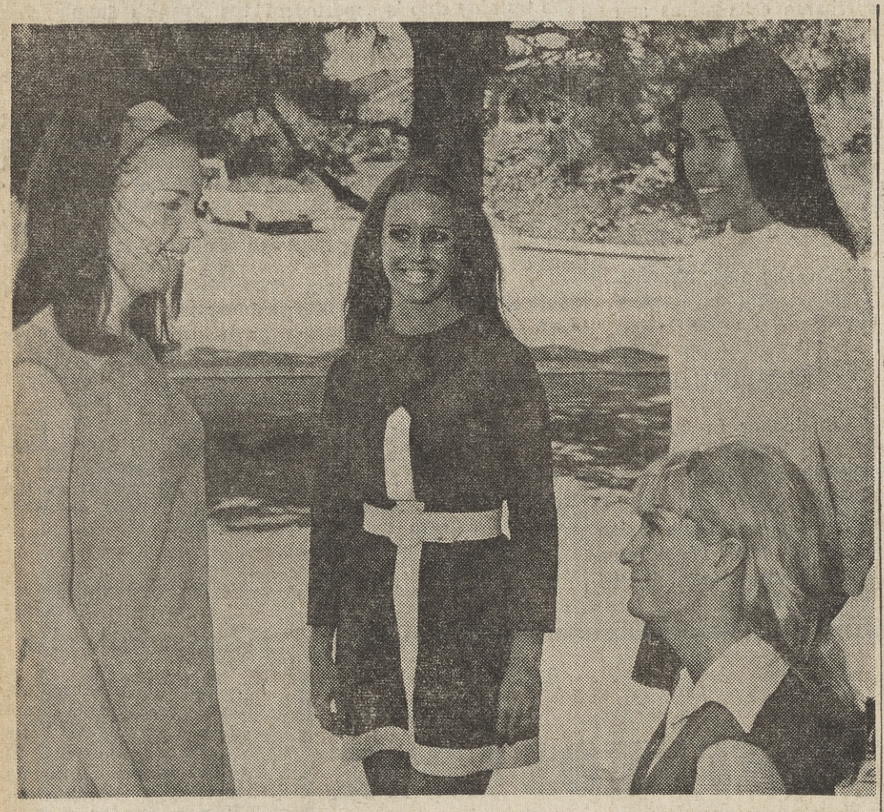
Local youth receives fellowship in Oregon

Donald Lee Helmich, son Mr. and Mrs. William F. Helmich, 3142 N. Evergreen St., has been awarded the National Defense Education Administration's $10,000 fellowship at the University of Oregon.

Helmich will receive his M.A. degree from the University of Oregon in June. His area of concentration is business administration. All his graduate courses to date have been straight "A."

While attending the University of Hawaii he was accepted for membership in Beta Gamma Sigma, a commerce and business honorary fraternity. In his senior year he was nominated for a departmental award in industrial management.

He served with the 25th Infantry Division in Vietnam and received the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service. He expects to receive his Ph.D. in operations research from the University of Oregon in 1970.



CONTESTANTS STANTON, EKERN, WAGGONER AND BUCKINGHAM
Opportunity knocking early.

MISS PENINSULA, FAIREST OF FAIR

Entry deadline near

Mrs. Wendy Reynolds, contest chairman for the Miss Peninsula and Fairest of the Fair Beauty Pageant, has announced an early entry deadline for April 30.

"There are nine girls already registered for the contest," she said. "We will be able to take only a very few more." The annual contest, sponsored by the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce and the Peninsula Ballet Company, will be held this year at the Kona Kai Club May 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Reynolds says the early deadline, unusual for a contest of this type, is due to the abnormally large turnout so far.

"Many times the girls do not register until the last minute," she said.

Girls wishing to enter the contest can pick up blanks at the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce office, 1352 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., and the Peninsula Ballet Company studios, 2294 Bacon St.

The list of girls registered for the contest includes Constance Anderson, 17, a Point Loma High School student, and Andree de Vries, 17, some pretty competition from Midway High School.

Other Point Lomans are Jill Buckingham, 17, Francie Donnell, 18; Jennifer Ekern, 17; Nancy Kirk, 18, and Rosella Waggoner, 17.

Susan Statton, 16, the youngest girl in the contest, also hails from Point Loma.

Melissa Ruis, 17, comes from the Midway area.

The Miss Peninsula winner will receive gifts totaling $650 in value and a trip to Hollywood. The prizes include a scholarship for 10 weeks of modeling and charm training from the John Robert Powers School; a full-length evening gown, a swim suit and a sterling silver charm bracelet; a receptionist course from the American College of San Diego; two season tickets to the 1969 Exposition and a Fairest of the Fair trophy; a free hair style from Don Vine's Beauty Salon, and prizes and trophies from the local merchants.

Winner of the countywide contest for the Fairest of the Fair title will receive a grand prize of $500 in cash, plus prizes valued at $2,000.

But, as far as entries go, it's almost a full house. Opportunity knocks early this year.

'Freedom from Hunger' walk to go around Mission Bay on April 27

Thousands of young people and adults will participate in a 29.8-mile "Freedom From Hunger" walk around Mission Bay April 27, according to Tom Wells, assistant head of the committee in charge of preparations.

The walkers will be looking for sponsors during the next two weeks. Sponsors will be expected to pay the walkers a certain amount of money per mile. Money raised from the walk will go to the American Freedom From Hunger Foundation, Washington, D.C. This is the ninth walk scheduled by the foundation to be held in the United States.

Each participant will carry a card which will be stamped at checkpoints throughout the area. The card will indicate that the walker has earned his fee for mileage traveled.

According to Wells, 42½ percent of the money will go to foreign relief, 15 percent will be used by the American Freedom from Hunger Foundation and the remaining percentage will be used here in San Diego "somewhere."

"We also hope to set up classes in nutrition and diets for people in certain parts of San Diego," he said.

Wells said most of the people who will join the walk are youngsters from local senior and junior high schools. "These young people want to say something," he said. "They want to say, 'Hey, look. I care.' They want to do something which will help to change the world. The whole point is to make the walk. Certainly they could go out and earn $3 babysitting and donate it to the cause, but this involvement in the walk is important because of its actual physical effort."

The walk will start at 7 a.m. from Balboa Park. From there the procession will trail down Laurel St. to First St.; down First to Hawthorne St.; west on Hawthorne to Kettner Blvd.; north on Kettner to Washington St.; from Washington to San Diego Ave. and through Old Town. Past Save-Co on Rosecrans St. the procession will go up Sports Arena Blvd. and on out S. Mission Bay Blvd.

The route from that point on will take the walkers out Pacific Beach Dr., Riviera Dr., Lamont St., Grand Ave. past Mission Bay High School, past the Hilton Inn, along the flood control channel, toward Mission Beach, to the Santa Clara Point Recreation Center, and finally terminate at Belmont Park.

The walk has the sponsorship of the Pacific Beach Town Council. The council is selling Golden Greats record albums at $2 to raise money for advertising the event.

Also being sold are buttons which read, "Sole Power."

Los Angeles trip to be sponsored by PTA in OB

The Ocean Beach Elementary School PTA will sponsor a bus trip to Los Angeles on April 17 as a fund-raising project.

Reservations cost $7.50 and seats are still available, according to PTA spokesmen. The bus will leave at 9:30 a.m. from the Ocean Beach Community Center, Santa Monica Ave. and Ebers St.

The trip includes a tour of Forest Lawn Cemetery, a visit to Farmers' Market, a movie and a visit to the taping of the "Donald O'Connor Show."

AMERICANISM AWARD

Bill Horn (left), third vice commander of the Amvets Sgt. Campos Post 15, looks on as Hobby Myers, Sentinel publisher, receives the Amvet's own National Americanism Trophy at the Sentinel office, where it will be on display throughout April. Bill Murad, past commander, makes the presentation. The local Amvets post has won the award two years in succession.

Q Please settle an argument. Who said the immortal line, "Play it again, Sam," in "Casablanca" — Humphrey Bogart or Ingrid Bergman? — J.O., Miami.

A Neither. Like many other classic movie lines, it's an impersonator's improvisation. A glance at the original script shows that Bogart actually said, "Sam, play it once — for old time's sake . . ."

Q A homosexual cowboy in the movies? Tell me it's not true! — L.P., Augusta, Ga.

A Tony Anthony plays the role, swishing around "Samurai on a Horse" with a parasol. It's a gay change from the old man-loves-horse corral cliche.

Q I want to be a model, but I'm confused. Is it true that it pays better to model with your clothes on or off? — M.L., Chicago.

A Mostly off but not all, if you want to make money. The going rate is $250 an hour for posing in bra and girdle. Anything more or less nets about $60 an hour.

Q Was Welsh singer Tom Jones in the movie of the same name? — A.F., Olney, Ill.

A No — but he's cashed in on it. Twenty-nine-year-old ex-bricklayer Jones (real name: Thomas Jones Woodward) debuted as a singer shortly after the movie made a hit in 1963, wearing ruffled shirts, breeches, and a pigtail. Since then, he's shortened his hair and his nose, and hip-wiggled his way to millions.

Q What happened to the Pakistani camel driver LBJ invited to the U.S.? — Y.D., Duluth.

A When Vice President Johnson said "Come see us, heah" he had no idea Bashir Ahmad would come see us here. A generous U.S. government played host in 1961, but the proud Pakistani went back home lamenting "If it hadn't been for the U.S.A., I would still be a hard working camel driver . . . Now I'm worthless, living on the past and hankering for things out of reach. . ."

Q Everyone knows about Elizabeth Taylor's extravagant spending habits, but has she saved anything for a rainy day? — T.L., Fredericksburg, Va.

A Let it rain. Liz could buy Noah's Ark with the $23 million she has stashed in a Swiss bank.

Q I've seen Peter Falk in several movies and his eyes have an unusual cast to them. Why? — J.G., Charlotte, N.C.

A Falk's right eye was removed by surgery when he was three years old, but he's never considered it an obstacle to his career. Nor have the critics, who have awarded him Emmy and Oscar nominations.

Q I play drums in a discotheque, but I'm told that strobe lights will harm my eyes. True? — I.V., Dallas.

A You'd better beat it to the store for some dark shades. Six-to-eight flashes per second freak out the iris and optic nerve. Twenty-five flashes per second wrinkle the alpha waves which control the ability to concentrate. The Air Force is studying the use of strobes as a wartime weapon, so don't be the first casualty.

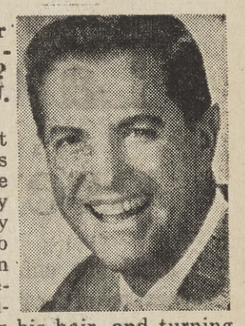
Q Have any other pop singers followed John Lennon and Yoko Ono with nude photos on their album covers? — R.M., Denver.

A Donovan shows front and center on his new album, "Donovan's Greatest Hits." It's no great hit, though, because the picture was taken when he was two years old.

Q I understand there's a school up north that will teach me native African dances. Where? — A. L., Madison.

A The famous writhers' school is a division of New York's Center for African Studies.

Q How does actor Robert Cummings stay so young? — D.L., Trenton, N.J.



A By lying about his age. He tells people he's 45 but the divorce suit he recently filed against wife Mary lists his age as 58. Bob helps his Peter Pan image by taking special vitamins and rejuvenation shots, dying his hair, and turning down roles because the leading ladies, at least 20 years younger, are "too old" for him.

You may have used the wrong tax table

More than 49,000 taxpayers in Southern California have used the wrong tax table or rate schedule so far this year in computing their 1968 federal income tax.

Not only have refunds been delayed but many have overpaid their income tax as a result, according to F. S. Schmidt, Internal Revenue Service district director.

Schmidt said the problem can arise when a married taxpayer filing a joint return uses the tax table for either married couples filing separately or for single persons. Single taxpayers also are using the tables for married taxpayers by mistake.

There are separate tax tables for single persons, married couples filing jointly, and married couples filing separate returns.

Another major reason for a refund delay is the failure of taxpayers to include their correct Social Security number, Schmidt added.

So far this year more than 24,000 refunds have been delayed in Southern California because of incorrect or missing Social Security numbers, he reported.

The 7½ percent surcharge must be figured and entered on the return on the line provided for it. To avoid errors, taxpayers should follow the instructions for making surcharge calculations and enter all required information.

So far errors in arithmetic are causing a delay in sending refunds to more than 40,000 taxpayers in Southern California.

Tax returns filed included more than 14,000 without signatures, including those of husband or wife on joint returns. These have to be sent back to the taxpayers before refunds can be processed.

Schmidt said nearly 1,350,000 taxpayers have received refunds, totaling nearly $400 million, since January.

Training ends

Pvt. Raymond L. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill H. Smith, 4136 Clairemont Drive, recently completed reconnaissance training at the Army Armor Center, Ft. Knox, Ky. He received eight weeks of training in the methods of scouting and patrolling, with emphasis on the operation of Army jeeps on rugged terrain. Instruction was also given in camouflage techniques, concealment in natural terrain and handling of weapons.

Watch your speed on the highways — the high death rate starts at 80 miles per hour.

Spanish windjammer to arrive for 200th

A high point of Spain's salute to San Diego during the 200th anniversary's Spanish Week, which ends Sunday, will be the arrival of the Spanish windjammer Juan Sebastian de Elcano Saturday.

The 380-foot Elcano will sail into San Diego harbor accompanied by numerous small craft from the area. The training ship is expected to tie up at the Broadway Pier at 1 p.m. for its seven-day visit here.

The windjammer will be met by a Navy pilot off Ballast Point at 11:45 a.m. At noon she will commence a gun salute to the senior officer present afloat at San Diego. The salute will be returned by the Naval Air Station at North Island.

A welcoming party of local naval officials will greet the Juan Sebastian's commanding officer, Cmdr. Alvaro Fontanals-Baron, when the ship docks.

Later Saturday, the Spanish ambassador to the United States, Cmdr. Fontanals-Baron, members of the 200th anniversary committee, and other officials, will gather at Spanish Landing near Lindbergh Field for ceremonies commemorating the arrival of the Spanish supply ship San Sebastian at that spot on April 11, 1769 — nearly 200 years before to the day.

That night an international grand ball, Gran Baile de los Conquistadores, is scheduled at Hotel del Coronado in honor of the Spanish dignitaries.

During the rest of their visit here the Spanish crew members will visit the San Diego Zoo, Sea World, and Balboa Park.

A midshipmen's ball is planned at 8 p.m. Sunday at the University of San Diego Women's College patio.

Also planned for the crew is a tour of Air Anti-Submarine Air Squadron 38 on Tuesday and a visit to the USS New Orleans on Wednesday.

Our Heritage of Faith...

LET'S ALL GO EVERY WEEK

'Fire' is topic of sermon in LJ

"Fire!" will be the title of the sermon to be preached Sunday at the Mt. Soledad Presbyterian Church, La Jolla Scenic Dr. at Soledad Mountain Rd., La Jolla, by the interim pastor, the Rev. Charles H. Jester.

Child care will be provided during worship, which begins at 10:30 a.m.

Sunday school begins at 9:30 a.m., with classes for children through sixth grade and for adults.

The adult class is beginning a study in the Book of Revelation.

There's nothing new under the sun—and the same old stuff goes on under the moon.

'Flowering of Cross' set by Episcopalians

"The Flowering of the Cross" is planned for Sunday at St. James-by-the-Sea Episcopal Church, 743 Prospect St., in La Jolla. On this first Sunday after Easter all church school children will meet in the church with their parents to worship together at the 9 a.m. family service and to return their Lenten mite boxes decorated with fresh flowers.

These colorful boxes then are placed in a large wooden frame and the result is the flowering of a large cross in the sanctuary.

There will be no regular church school classes on this day but the crib room will be open at 9 and 11 a.m.

There will be a celebration of the communion at 7:30 a.m. The Rev. Robert M. Wolterstorff will preach a short missionary message at the family service, and the Rev. William P. Rowland, assistant to the rector, will preach at 11 a.m. The choirs will sing Easter hymns, "Alleluia! Christ Is Risen," and "By Early Morning Light."

Evening communion will be in the chapel at 5:30 p.m., followed by a meeting of college young people.

Weekday communions are scheduled in the chapel Tuesday at 8 a.m. and 6 p.m., Wednesday and Thursday at 10 a.m. and Friday at 7:30 a.m.

Verse from Job part of service

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of this week's Bible lesson-sermon to be heard Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

A verse from Job, included in the lesson, states that God "will not afflict."

A related passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy says: "The humble Nazarene overthrew the supposition that sin, sickness, and death have power. He proved them powerless."

All are welcome at the Sixth Church of Christ, Scientist, 2340 Chatsworth Blvd. Services begin at 10 a.m.

Beth El plans service for end of Passover

The last day of Passover will be observed by Temple Beth El, the Conservative synagogue of North Shores, 3410 Mt. Acadia Blvd., with a special service at 8 a.m. Thursday morning. The sermon topic will be "The Martyrs of Our Holy Land."

Yiskor (memorial services) will be conducted by Rabbi Maurice Idell at 9:30 a.m. The rabbi will memorialize departed members of the congregation, and a special prayer will be given for soldiers who died in Israel, fighting for the Holy Land.

"Israel Today" will be Rabbi Idell's sermon topic Friday at 8:15 p.m.

Temple Beth El's choir, under the direction of Henny Weiss and Nate Wolferman, will assist in the services.

The Oneg Shabbat reception will be hosted by the Sisterhood of the congregation.

Saturday morning services will be at Temple Beth El at 9:30 a.m. The rabbi's sermon topic will be "Courage and Strength."

Dr. and Mrs. Aaron Weiss will be hosts to a luncheon following the service.

Presbyterians plan service this Sunday

Services will be conducted at La Jolla Presbyterian Church Sunday, 9 and 11 a.m. The Rev. Walter E. James, associate pastor, will be in the pulpit. Child care will be provided in the Christian Education Building.

The chancel choir, under the direction of L. Robert Slusser, will sing "O Thou Holy Spirit," and Howard Fried, tenor, will sing a solo.

Church school classes from nursery through junior high will convene at 9 a.m. The senior high class will meet at 10:30 a.m.

The Koinonia Choir will rehearse at 5:45 p.m. Sunday. The junior high fellowship will meet at 6:15 p.m., the Koinonia at 7:15 p.m., the Collegians at 7:30 p.m. and the single young adults at 7:30 p.m.

Organist to present recital

Dr. Myrl Hendershott, organist and choir director at the Union Congregational Church in La Jolla, and teacher of oceanography at Scripps Institution of Oceanography, will present a recital for the San Diego chapter of the American Guild of Organists at St. Andrew's by-the-Sea Episcopal Church, Pacific Beach, on Monday at 8 p.m.

The program is open to the public.

Hendershott began his study of the organ while attending the University of Wyoming. He was organist of St. Matthew's Cathedral in Laramie, Wyo.

Then he began graduate study in physics at Harvard University, and played several recitals in the New England area. Upon coming to La Jolla, he studied for a year with Clarence Nader, and made several appearances in the San Diego area as a vocal accompanist.

His program will include selections from Wolfgang Mozart, Samuel Scheidt, Johann Sebastian Bach, Cesar Franck, Richard Purvis and Maurice Durufle.

Methodists in PB plan services, fellowship

"The Marks of a Great Church" will be the topic of the Rev. Milton Weisshaar at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday services at Pacific Beach United Methodist Church, 1561 Thomas Ave.

Music by the chancel choir, directed by E. R. Zaloudek, will include the Negro spiritual, "Deep River."

At 7:30 p.m. Sunday the Charge Conference, which was known as the Quarterly Conference before the 1968 merger of the Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren churches, will meet in Hughes Hall.

Dr. Russell Robinson, district superintendent of the San Diego District of the Southern California-Arizona Conference of the United Methodist Church, will officiate.

Reports for the year will be given; officers for the year will be elected, and some new directions for the local church's program will be presented.

During the coffee fellowship time on the patio Sunday, there will be an opportunity to sign up for participation in the sports program. The sports coordinator, Whitey Guenthner, has announced that volleyball, softball, golf and bowling will be available.

The senior high group, including the 10th, 11th and 12th grades, are attending a retreat at the Ranch House at Camp Cedar Glen this weekend. Details may be obtained by calling the church office, 274-6573.

The Merry Mates are sponsoring an outing this weekend at Idyllwild in the San Jacinto Mountains.

Church reviews theories about man's creation

At 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in the Union Congregational Church, 1216 Cave St., La Jolla, Rev. William Forshaw will continue his review of "Man on a Spaceship," by William G. Pollard, executive director of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. Pollard also is a parish minister of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The chapters reviewed in this book contain the latest theories on the creation of man. They include new scietific reflection on evolution. The public has been invited. There will be no charge.

Impression of seminary to be topic

On Sunday at 11 a.m., at Union Congregational Church, 1216 Cave St., La Jolla, the Rev. William Forshaw's sermon will be "Impressions of a Modern Theological Seminary."

He will report on the spring convocation at Eden Theological Seminary, Webster Groves, Mo., where he heard a series of lectures titled "The Impact of Technology and Social Change Upon the Life of Man and the Functioning of the Church."

Sunday school classes will meet from 10:30 a.m. to noon. The Sunday school program will include a worship service in the sanctuary, classroom study and youth choir.

Nursery care will be provided for younger children. Coffee will be served from 10:30 to 11 a.m. in Forshaw Hall.

LJ church sets Sunday worship

The La Jolla Community Church of Religious Science will hold Sunday service at 10:45 a.m. in the La Jolla Woman's Club, 715 Silverado St. Junior church will meet at the same time, directly across the street, in the La Jolla Recreation Center.

In the absence of the Rev. Robert E. Whitworth, the Rev. Sally Chaffee will give the sermon. Leslie Cozzens, soloist, will sing "Ye Shall Know the Truth."

Baptists present Skillings' group

The Otis Skillings' Singers featuring Otis and Mervyl Skillings will appear Sunday at Emmanuel Baptist Church, 4212 Jewell St., at 7 p.m.

The group will present a program of sacred numbers, combining favorite hymns with gospel songs and spirituals.

Many of the singers play instruments. They have appeared at the World's Fair in New York City, the U. S. Army Base in Frankfurt, Germany, and before church audiences in Scotland, France and Italy.

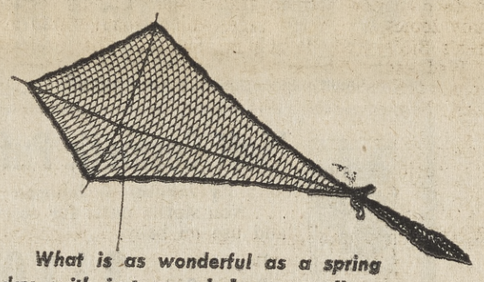
Flimsy as a Kite



What is as wonderful as a spring day, with just enough breeze to fly a new kite? It soars higher and higher, a bright blotch of color in the sky. It is a rare individual who won't pause to watch it, and, to most of us, it is perhaps a symbol of unsurpassed freedom.

Yet, in flying a kite there is need for control, or it will soon crash. What was sheer loveliness will become a crumpled heap of sticks and torn paper. This is true of many things that catch our fancies—true also of many of our dreams.

In this life, we need to learn the difference between the things that endure and those that are as flimsy as a kite in the wind. We need to learn control, courage and faith. None of these comes easily, but the first step will be found in the teachings of your church. Have you been going to church lately?

Congregational Church plans Sunday rites

"What This Church Means to Me" will be the theme on Layman's Sunday at the Community Congregational Church of Pacific Beach, 2088 Beryl St.

Services will be led by lay-leaders Gary Rudolph, moderator; Alan McAllister, chairman of the board of deacons, and Richard McKesson, chairman of the board of trustees.

The 9:30 a.m. forum will allow discussions on the theme. The 10:50 a.m. service will be conducted in the traditional manner with the sermon "What This Church Means to Me," given by the lay-leaders.

The Rev. David E. McCracken will conduct the kindergarten church class and will discuss "God's Plan of Creation in the World Around Us."

Church school will convene at 9:30 a.m., and nursery care will be povided. Coffee will be seved on the patio between services.

Talk set on role of church

"What Is the Church in the Twentieth Century?" will be the sermon at the Family Reformed Church of Clairemont Sunday. The Rev. Daniel H. Fylstra will deliver the sermon at the 9 and 10:30 a.m. services.

For the vesper service at 7 p.m. Pastor Fylstra will resume an earlier series of studies about the great events of the Old Testament. The sermon will be "War, Intrigue, and a New King."

The family fellowship, a midweek study group meeting, discusses the Sunday sermon under the leadership of the church elders. Feedback from the groups will be used to develop new sermon and study topics.

Women's Bible study is at 10 a.m. Wednesday. The current topic is the Letter to the Ephesians. Nursery care is provided.

One class of instruction in the faith meets Thursdays at 7:30 p.m., and another meets Sundays at 4 p.m.

Presbyterian rites set for Mariners' Sunday

"Little Things Around the House" will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. Jon S. West, associate pastor of Pacific Beach Presbyterian Church, 1675 Garnet Ave., at the 9 and 10:30 a.m. services Sunday.

The subject is related to the presbytery-wide observance of Mariners' Sunday in San Diego.

Presbyterian Mariners is a national organization of couples' clubs in the United Presbyterian Church. One of its emphases is Christian family life. Representatives of the local church's three Mariner Clubs will participate in the Sunday services.

At the 10:30 a.m. service the Pacific Beach Assembly 180, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls will visit.

There also will be infant baptism at the 10:30 service.

Saturday the Southern California Synod Mariner Council will meet in the church.

Saturday at 9 a.m., there will be a prayer breakfast for the church's christian education workers in Calvin Hall. Navy Chaplain Robert Canfield will be the guest speaker.

Old-fashioned rally planned by Lutherans

More than 10,000 Lutherans are expected to gather May 18 in San Fernando Valley, Orange County, Phoenix, and San Diego for an afternoon of "Old-Fashioned Mission Rally." The San Diego rally will be held in the Greek Theatre at California Western University.

There will be music, inspirational messages and talks by guest speakers. The highlight of each rally will be the commissioning of five young people to be part of the World Witness Tour and serve as the World Witness Speakers' Bureau.

The World Witness Program is intended to give people a greater awareness of their personal commission from the Savior.

Dates for the two tours are June 26 to July 27 and July 6 to July 29. Each will be composed of ten young people, aged 16 to 21, and two counselors.

The tours will begin at Mexico City and will include a stay at a jungle camp.

Baptists plan Youth Sunday in La Jolla

Sunday will be Youth Sunday at the First Baptist Church of La Jolla, 627 Genter St. The young people will participate in the services under the direction of the youth minister, Tom Owen.

At the 11 a.m. service the Rev. William J. Cravens will preach on "The Pearl of Great Price." Communion will conclude the worship.

An enlarged evening program for children and youth, grades four through college age, will be inaugurated at 6 p.m. Sunday. The evensong at 7 p.m. will consider the Old Testament Book of Jonah, and the pastor will speak about "A.W.O.L."

Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages, and child care will be provided

Unitarians sponsoring art show

The Religious Arts Guild of the First Unitarian Church, 4190 Front St., under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Durson of Lemon Grove, is sponsoring its fourth annual All Media—All Artist Show in Bard Hall adjacent to the church.

More than 150 paintings and drawings, plus sculpture, jewelry, ceramics, stitchery and related art forms, are on exhibit.

The show will close Sunday. At 4 p.m. the silent auction of donated items from such artists as James Hubbell, Jane Fletcher, John Douglas Miller, Cliff McReynolds, Karen Cozlow, Fred Hocks, M. Krahl, Harold Gregor and Rossie Wade will end.

The Bard Hall gallery of the First Unitarian Church is open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sundays.

Further information is available from Mrs. Arthur Durson, 465-1577.

Evangelistic meetings set in Clairemont

Spiritual renewal evangelistic meetings will be held at the First Baptist Church of Clairemont, 4544 Pocahontas St., April 27-30, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Earl R. Berg, pastor of Garfield Baptist Church, Long Beach, will present a series of evangelistic messages with an emphasis on spiritual renewal.

There will be special music, and a nursery will be provided for all services. A youth night is planned April 27 at 7:30.

Scholarship for PB girl

Miss Joan Maltese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Maltese, 1022 Van Nuys St., Pacific Beach, has been awarded a scholarship to Our Lady of Peace Academy here.

This June she will be graduated from All Hallows Academy, La Jolla, and will begin studies at Our Lady of Peace Academy in the fall. She is the editor of the All Hallows school nespaper, the Trumpeter.

Linda Vista Methodists set Women's Day

Sunday will be Women's Day at the Linda Vista United Methodist Church, 6869 Tait St. The Womens Society of Christian Service will be in charge of the program with Mrs. John Schlentz, vice president, presiding.

The guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service will be Barbara Bright, director of senior adult service of the women's society. Special music will be presented by the choir.

The women of the church will have a rummage sale in the social hall April 18 and 19 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The senior high group wil go to the Methodist Indian Mission in Yuma, Ariz., this weekend for work and fellowship.

Show proceeds will rebuild burned church

The youth of Pioneer United Church of Christ will present a variety show titled "Bits and Pieces" next Friday from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at 4905 Jellett St.

A donation of 50 cents will be asked. Participants are: Greg Deering, from San Diego State College; Debbie Thomas, from Mission Bay; Ginny Miller, and Rich King, Lewis Marbrey, Jeff Page and Gary Holman from Clairemont.

The purpose of "Bits and Pieces" is to raise funds to rebuild the Church of Christian Fellowship in southeast San Diego. The church was destroyed by fire at Christmas.

The show will include folk singing, a pop band, a magician, a juggler and instrumental music.

Tickets will be available from all youth of Pioneer Church and at the door.

Film planned on causes of hunger in the world

"Between the Dark and Daylight," a color film, will be shown by the senior high group, the Expressions, of Clairemont Lutheran Church at the vesper service Sunday at 7 p.m.

The film was produced to illustrate the underlying causes of world hunger, and the role of the churches in helping to overcome it. The movie will serve as an introduction to the Walk for Hunger, which the Expressions will join, along with other youth groups in San Diego, April 27.

The film shows how people of the "have not" world exist in hunger, ignorance, disease and war.

Morning services Sunday will offer communion at 8, 9 and 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Richard Knutzen's sermon will be "God Counts on Men." It will be an orientation on the forthcoming program of adult Christian education for Clairemont Lutheran.

Tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. the Mr. and Mrs. Club will hold a Western Talent Night at the church.

On Saturday at 7:30 a.m. the Men's Prayer Breakfast Group will be host to other American Lutheran churches in San Diego.

WESTERN LEAGUE

Prep Track

By RICHARD YEAGER
Sentinel Prep Writer

Every Western League track team this year has won or lost meets with sprinters. Still the distance runner is the backbone of the league.

AT SATURDAY'S SAN Diego Relays, held at Balboa Stadium, the Western League distance spikemen demonstrated their skills and showed why they are the cream of the city's distance runners. Point Loma, Kearny, Mission Bay, and Clairemont all had a piece in the showing.

On Balboa Stadium's fast all-weather track, Point Loma's four-man four-mile relay team of Jon Freyer, Mike Williams, Chuck Dyer, and Bob Brenner won that event while Mission Bay's Nat Romero, Mike Valle, Tom Lee, and Benny Martinez crossed the line second. The Pointer's time was 18:17.3 while the Buc's closed with a 18:22.1. Kearny still holds the stadium and meet record for the event, with a 17:58.4 clocking in 1967.

THE DISTANCE MEDLEY relay is a 440-880-1,320 yards-mile effort. Clairemont took that race with Kearny closing strong for second and Point Loma fourth. The Chief's team of Frank Lincavage, Jerry Barnard, Pete Carl, and Dave Harper finished in the time of 10:49.0 while the Komets cossed the line with a 10:54.0. The Pointer's Buzz Haugh, Steve De Poister, Rich Platt, and Dave Hull ended up fourth in 10:57.0. Kearny's Eddie Ganales, Cliff Conners, and Rudy Fillett stayed close to the pack of Clairemont, Coronado, and Point Loma. Then the Komets moved as Ledbetter took the batton and fought past two runners to cop the second place for his team. Ledbetter was clocked in 4:36.0 for his leg.

Mission Bay's Jim Koudelka suffered his first defeat of the season in the 100 yard dash. Koudelka, Kearny's Mike Cornell and the Komet's Vince Breddell were entered in the sprint and only Breddell made the finals where he placed third with a :10.0 timing.

VINCE CLAYPOOLE OF Mission Bay failed to qualify for the finals of the 120 yard high hurdles. He finished with a :15.8.

Point Loma's sprint medley relay team of Gary Fletcher, Don Amador, Ron Stiers, and Bob Kaye won their event in 3:39.5. Kearny, also entered, finished dead last.

Mission Bay's 440-relay team of Ray Kilburn, Bob Brown, Mark Cornell, and Koudelka took a first in the small school division race with a time of 44.1. Kearny, with Mike Cornell, Lloyd Ellis, Ken Jones, and Breddell ended in third behind Lincoln and Los Angeles' Dorsey High. The Komet's time was :43.6.

Mission Bay's 880-relay took a third with a 1:31.7 clocking. Claypool, Kilburn, Cornell, and Koudelka were the runners.

THE MILE-RELAY SAW Kearny's team of Mike Montoya, Lloyd Ellis, Mark Behrens, and Eddie Ganales take a third behind the fast teams of Lincoln and Dorsey in the time of 3:25.1. This now places the Komets in second position behind the Hornets for the fastest time in the county in that event. Mission Bay copped a first in the small school mile-relay. Claypool, Ray Holton, Jim Devinney, and Tom Lee ran a 3:36.3. Point Loma ran to a third in that race.

Field events look to be the sad part of the league. Point Loma's Dave Listen and Kearny's Wilburn Strong were the only entrants for the S. D. Relays. Listen did not qualify after the first round of the Shot Put competition while Strong copped a fourth place with a jump of 6'2".

Trout plant

The California Dept. of Fish and Game has scheduled plants of catchable size rainbow trout this week in Doane Lake, Pine Valley Creek Santa Margarita River and Sweetwater River, all in San Diego County. Other plants will be made in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino Counties.

Sutherland Reservoir received a bonus plant of channel catfish from the Dept. of Fish and Game. The San Diego County reservoir received 4,200 of the eight-inch fish which were hatched out nine months ago. The fish were planted out to make room in the experimental hatchery ponds in Imperial Valley for this spring's spawning.

Fish story coming up

Everything from how to catch them to how to cook them will come up for full discussion when the San Diego County Fish and Game Association holds its annual salt water meeting Thursday night, April 10, at 7:30 in the Balboa Park War Memorial Building.

Bob Wagner, salt water chairman, will serve as moderator and has invited a panel of experts which will include such salt water notables as Bill Poole, representing Fisherman's Landing and Seaforth; Steve Giffin, Point Loma Association; Bob Filson, H. & M.; Dave Anderson, Mission Bay, and Capt. Don Glass, Department of Fish and Game's Marine Patrol.

Bob Rowan, expert in rod and reel repairs, will give anglers noteworthy tips on how to keep fishing gear in tip-top shape.

In addition, Mayo Obregon, of the Mexican Department of Fish and Game, and Rogelio Gudino, of the Mexican Tourist Bureau, will explain how Americans may legally take advantage of excellent sport in their country. At the same time, they will pinpoint the better areas for superior hunting and fishing.

One of the feature outdoor films to be shown by the Association's projectionist, Paul Cooper, will exploit the Sea of Cortez, and is being shown a second time because of repeated requests of the sportsmen. The public is invited.

AT SPORTS ARENA

Gulls, Bucks clash tonight

The San Diego Gulls and the Portland Buckaroos meet tonight at the Sports Arena in the sixth game of their Western Hockey League Lester Patrick Cup Semifinal Series. Gametime is 8 p.m.

One of the teams will be in a position to win the series tonight depending on the outcome of last night's fifth game in Portland.

The teams were tied in the series 2-2 after the first four games with both winning their home games.

Portland opened the series with a 4-3 win in Portland, then the Gulls took a pair of Sports Arena contests—5-2 and 6-1—before returning to Portland last Sunday evening and dropping a 3-1 decision.

The Sunday night game "could easily have gone the other way" said Gulls General Manager-Coach Max McNab. "We were there. We had the chances but we just couldn't put the puck in."

The Gulls were hammering at the Portland goal in the final seconds of the game when Buckaroo Art Jones shot the puck the length of the ice into the open Gull net to give Portland its third goal. Tonight's game should be another thriller. If the series goes a full seven-game route the final game will be played in Portland on Saturday night.

Ross Perkins made his series debut in Sunday night's game as Gordie Sinclair was unable to play because of leg and arm injuries. Al LeBrun filled Sinclair's spot on defense and played well in the tension filled game.

Right winger Edgar Ehrenverth is also out of action. The Gulls' top checker and penalty killer hurt his knee in a bit of slam-bang action two weeks ago and the injury has not healed enough to allow Ehrenverth to do more than skate a little. Gull boss Max McNab hopes the popular winger gets back into action in the title series against Vancouver. But first, the Gulls must get past the Buckaroos.

Bob Champoux had another strong game in the San Diego goal, especially in the closing moments when the Gulls threw everything on the offense.

Ed Spiezo, Ivan Murrell, Al Ferrara, Ollie Brown, Clarence Gaston and Bill Davis give punch to the Padres.

NL CAREER UNDER WAY

Padres' pride proven

By JOHN E. WIRGES
Sentinel Sports Editor

The San Diego Padres opened their inaugural campaign in the National League with a display of stringent defense, power and excellent pitching. Dignitaries of baseball, business and politics were present to perform suitable service in traditional opening day ceremonies Tuesday evening at San Diego stadium. Everything was friendly and warm as the players were introduced. The Houstons' kidded the locals and welcomed them to the big time. The Astros had a few special remarks for Padres' Nate Colbert, Ivan Murrell and Tom Dukes, all former Houston employees. Then the game started and the Texas smile faded.

Padre hurler Dick Selma fired a five hitter, allowing but one run and striking out 12 in a positive display of Padre pitching prowess. Third baseman Ed Spiezio ripped a Houston offering over the left-center field wall and the Padres were proper launched in the National League with a 2-1 win. The Padres National League career is under way.

Tonight the boss is coming to town. Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn will pay his first official visit to the Padres. Houston completes their San Diego visit and makes room for the first West Coast series at San Diego Stadium.

The San Francico Giants, Willie Mays and company, open a three-game weekend set with the Padres tomorrow night. Juan Marichal is scheduled to pitch the opener. Saturday the pair play the first NBC nationally televised "Game of the Week." It is also "Bat-Day" and some 20,000 bats will be given to each and every boy and girl under 13 years of age attending the game. Saturday's game gets under way at 12:15 p.m. The Giants complete the series on Sunday with a 1 p.m. contest.

DAVE BLACKWELL

Following the home stand the Padres take off on a short road trip with two game series in Los Angeles and a four game set in San Francisco.

Prep baseball

Point Loma returned from Easter Vacation rested and ready. To prove the point, the Pointers popped Kearny 4-1 to hand them their first loss and end the Komets winning streak. Loman Curran Percival fired a two-hitter at the Komets for the win.

Madison's Dave Blackwell tripped arch rival Clairemont with a seven hitter. Blackwell got all the help he needed from Art Martinez and Bob Brady. Both belted homers with Martinez' blow coming with two men on base.

La Jolla's Paul Westmoreland cracked a sixth inning homer to give the Vikings a 2-1 win over University at Robb Field. Westmoreland's circuit blow gave the mound win to Doug Rogers and spoiled a fine effort by the Don's Bob Keller, who limited Vike hitters to four safeties.

Mission Bay continued to prove its sock with a 6-5 non-league win over Hilltop. The Bucs are beginning to jell though they committed four errors in the contest.

A full slate of games is on tap for tomorrow with University visiting Mission Bay, Clairemont at Point Loma, La Jolla at Madison and Kearny visiting Chula Vista in a non-league affair.

Elvin Hayes 'Top Rookie' only at home

Elvin "Big E" Hayes is the Most Valuable Player, but only to his own San Diego Rockets' mates. He is also the best rookie in the league but again, the award is recognized only by Rocket players, coaches and team brass. A goodly number of local fans and sports media members agree but with just an exception or two, all National Basketball Association eyes turn East to Baltimore's Wes Unseld.

The Bullet's rookie pivot man, a genuinely unassuming team player, won both NBA awards. His comment when notified of his selection was the same each time, "I'm overwhelmed," he said simply.

There are many who believe the Rockets' Hayes suffered among voting sportswriters in the East by his lack of television exposure. The Rockets didn't appear on the nationally televised "NBA Game of the Week" at all during the 1968-69 season. Every time one looked, however, the Baltimore Bullts were either on or coming next week. The NBA explains it this way " . . . the time lag on the West coast prevents telecasting Western Division team home games to eastern cities." So the voting writers don't see Hayes except when he plays their club on the visiting team, that's three times a year. Walter Kennedy, (NBA Commisisoner) please take note, the best in the West could very well have been the best around but for some unequal TV time.

Hayes led the NBA in scoring with 2,327 points, played every minute of every game and was the prime mover in the Rockets advance to fourth place in the Western Division. The Hayes led Rockets battled the vastly more experienced Atlanta Hawks down to the wire in each of the post-season playoff games, losing the series 4-2. The Hawks finished the Rockets' hopes with a 108-106 win Tuesday night.

Los Angeles Laker superstar Wilt Chamberlain, on a post game visit to the Rockets dressing room Tuesday, congratulated each player. "They were miraculous," opinioned Big Wilt.

Record bass taken at Miramar's pond

By JEAN SCOTT

Miramar reservoir pulled a real "sleeper" last Sunday with a state record, bass catch. Predominantly a trout fishery, located at Miramar Frontage Rd. off Highway 395, the city ake has been producing some excellent bass catches.

THE RECORD FISH, A 15¼-pound Florida bass, was taken by David "Jake" Jacobs, 4512 La Crosse Ave. Jacobs was fishing for trout using a tiny number 16 treble hook baited with cheese when the lunker bass hit. The San Diego angler was fishing on the float across from the concession stand. Jacobs' record bass for California measured 25 5/8 inches long and 23¾ inches in girth. Jacobs hauled it in on six-pound test mono.

Orville Ball, superintendent of the city lakes has been predicting a record Florida bass catch this year, however he and many of the other fishing experts expected it would be taken at Lower Otay. Lower Otay's keeper found a sixteen-pound bass floating dead near the dam a few weeks ago and several trophy fish have been checked in since the south bay reservoir opened for the season. Bet your fishing boots that the bass-pros will head for Miramar this weekend.

TWO THREE-POUND trout also bit the dust at Miramar, adding to the bass excitement. Mike Blechynden of Pacific Beach fished Joe's Hole for his 5½-pound string which included one of the three-pounders. The other lunker was caught by Tom Duer of San Diego.

Lower Otay's fish count included two trophy bass, a 9½ and a 10½-pounder. Looking small in comparison to the record bass landed at Miramar, these fish would have been records if caught four years ago. Just shows how the freshwater Florida bass plants have paid off for San Diego anglers.

EL CAPITAN IS PROducing many strings of small bass but the best action is found in the Chocolate and Conejos arms of the reservoir. That's where channel catfish hide out in water 12 to 15 feet deep. Matt Wilburn, 1975 Paradise St., landed a 9½-pounder fishing the Chocoate Arm with mackerel bait.

Lake Murray had a good two trout per angler average for the weekend and scores of youngsters used the Kid's Fishing Pond facilities during their Easter vacation. A typical limit, five trout-five-pounds, was taken by H. Dempsey, 6060 Clairemont Mesa Blvd. Dempsey baited salmon eggs and fished the Alvarado Pt. section of Murray.

ANGLERS ARE LAMENTing the lack of yellowtail catches at the Coronado Islands. Eager to qualify for the 23rd Annual Yellowtail Derby, anglers have been disappointed in the poor count over the past few days. After consulting a crystal ball, 25 skippers and five sportfishing landings there's no doubt, "the yellows will bust loose soon." Unquote.

City's housing shortage: No more buyers' market

By JOHN WOOD
Exclusive to the Sentinel

If you haven't had your head in the sand for the last few months, you know San Diego is in the midst of a severe housing problem; people are desperately looking for some place to live.

In this and two more articles, I want to run down the whats and whys of the housing problem here, some of the ways it is affecting people, and any solutions in sight.

Wood

With anything as complicated as the home building industry, construction costs, tight money, housing supply and housing demand, a simple explanation of a housing shortage is difficult, but here is an attempt:

Ten years ago there were nearly 30,000 housing units built in this city, enough to glut the market. If you were here then and looking for a place to rent or buy, you remember it was a "buyers' market" and landlords were beating the bushes with long sticks looking for people.

SAN DIEGO WAS OVERBUILT THEN; THE VAcancy rate soared to as high as 14 percent. Builders and contractors were discouraged, apartment house owners went broke and there was a fierce battle raging for anyone with a month's rent in his pocket. Then, you'll remember, San Diego was hit by a recession in the early '60s, with a number of layoffs in the large firms.

There had to be a reaction to all this. Dan Grady, executive vice president of San Diego Housing—a private, non-profit organization interested in housing—told me what it was.

"After that 29,000-unit year, which was the highest ever here, the units built each year dropped off to a low point in 1963 or 1964 of between 9,000 and 10,000," Grady said. "And it stayed below 15,000 units until last year."

A number of things caused this, besides, of course, the oversupply. Grady pointed out that although construction costs have remained fairly stable (until recently) and techniques have improved for building better and faster, labor and land costs have climbed steadily.

"The percentage of the land cost of the total home package price has gone from 10 percent of the cost to between 25 and 30 percent," Grady said, "and sometimes even higher." Tight money hasn't helped the situation; neither have expectations from the buyers.

NOT ONLY DOES A MAN WANT HIS HOME TO be a castle, he wants it to look like one, inside and out. A family that used to be happy with two bedrooms now wants three or four, plus a den and two-car garage. Washer, dryer, range, carpeting, garbage disposal and landscaping are expected to be part of the deal.

This high expectation is reflected in a report to the San Diego Housing Authority: "The average sale price of a home in the seven Southern California counties is more than $28,000, yet the medium income in the counties would show a need for an average price of about $19,000."

Grady says a new factor has been added to the problem. Although building material costs had remained fairly stable, since early 1968 they have bounced up 15 to 20 percent. The cost of lumber, he said, has doubled.

So all these factors have combined to put us in the fix we're in now. Only two percent (at most) of the units available here are vacant; that's so low it's practically meaningless, Grady noted. There is a shortage now of between 15,000 and 20,000 units and that will get worse as more people move to San Diego.

NAVY PERSONNEL HAVE ALREADY BEEN REceiving notices not to bring their families with them when they're assigned to San Diego. The housing for service families, bad by anyone's estimation now, will get worse this summer, the season preferred for transfers.

A housing shortage also means that rents go up. Landlords can now charge and get top dollar for their apartments and houses, no matter what shape they're in. Not only can they make more money, they can be highly selective when it comes to choosing tenants.

So put these all together: an alarmingly low number of places to live (of these, too many are for the affluent), tight money, increasing demands for housing, mushrooming construction and land costs, high rental rates and choosy landlords.

They add up to a very depressing answer for this All-America City. One of the saddest elements of the picture is that this housing problem hurts the most where it is so badly needed, with the poor—black, brown and white, those with large, low-to-middle-income families, and any "undesirables," defined however a landlord wants to define it.

ONE OF MY CONTINUING TRAINS OF THOUGHT about this city is that somehow the affluence, the climate, the generally conservative nature of the people, the way of life and, I suppose, human nature all add up to an apathy about depressing problems.

We all have our own kind of rose-colored glasses through which to view the world. After all, if we can spend the day lounging at the beach and tennis club, can things be that bad in San Ysidro, Chula Vista, Logan Heights or Linda Vista?

They sure as hell can, and this housing shortage, which will likely get worse before it gets better, is an ugly reminder.

NEXT WEEK: How the housing shortage is affecting some San Diegans.

She was 17 and pretty...

By L. M. BOYD
Special to the Sentinel

"HOW MANY TOWNS IN THE U.S. ARE CALLED Podunk?" inquires a client. Only know of two. One in Iowa, another in New York . . . Every fourth woman on a commercial airplane takes her shoes off . . . Believe the most talented of the amateur jewelry makers are the dentists . . . It's generally agreed among heads that barbiturates are harder to kick than heroin . . . In the last report on the crime clock, did I mention the federal government now spends $350,000 a minute?

WALKING BACKWARDS—YES, TURTLES CAN walk backwards. They hardly ever do. But they can. This reply to an earlier inquiry about the matter comes from a lady who says she feeds her turtle corn on the cob. That must be some turtle! Corn on the cob is the world's finest vegetable. No question she loves her turtle intensely.

ON THE POLICE BEAT — SHE WAS 17 AND pretty. On a police beat years ago I met the girl, and this happened. As she stepped off her bus, a skinny man about 25 pussyfooted after her, and in less than a minute, she was floundering in hedge shadows, screaming, and he was writhing about her in silent fury, clawing at her clothing. A fingernail got him in the eye, evidently. He took off. And later when the police drove her down to the station to look at mug shots, she said she would recognize him no doubt about it. She didn't, though. The only picture in the whole batch she recognized was that of another character, twice convicted of unspeakable offenses, whom she identified unmistakably in one stunning moment as her father.

CUSTOMER SERVICE: Q. "SO YOU'VE NEVER met a tall Judy, eh? Let me introduce myself. I am 5-foot-9, slim, blonde and sexy. Does that interest you?" A. In a scientific sort of way, certainly. Is Judy short for Judith or Julius? If Judith, please send a snapshot . . . Q. "Didn't Mickey Rooney win some sort of military medal in World War II?" A. He did. A Bronze Star. "For exceptional courage in the performance of his duties as an entertainer."

MILITARY MIGHT—WIDESPREAD IS THE BElief that either the Soviet Union or China keeps more men in military uniform than any other nation. That's wrong. The United States does so. With servicemen totaling 3,454,160 at last report. The Soviet Union keeps 3,260,000. China keeps 2,650,000. However, the Soviet Union might payroll more, if it were ready. China might, too, if it were richer. So the foregoing facts do not really prove the United States is that country whose military bloc has the most say-so. They just seem to.

EYE COLORS — A BROWN-EYED HUSBAND should never try to tune in a color television set to satisfy a blue-eyed wife. Or vice versa. Eye specialists say that. Color of the husband's eye itself, they say, affects the color he sees on the TV set. Color of the wife's eye does likewise, naturally. So if the husband's and wife's eyes are different colors, they see colors differently. Thus arguments ensue. Sometimes epithets. Occasionally tears. Even violence.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used wherever possible. Address mail to CHECKING UP, c/o the Editor, the Sentinel, 2724 Garnet Ave., San Diego 92109.

Around the Point

By GLORIA KELLER and SUE THOMPSON

Well folks, vacation's over; it's now time to start counting the days to Memorial Day, our next vacation. Those who stayed in San Diego this last week went to hockey games, basketball games and the beach.

* * *

It was a great vacation for traveling and Lomans certainly did their share. Among the travelers were Coquettes and Ka Anoi, Rick Gerding, Debbie Sikes and Steve Reichart who made Palm Springs their destination.

Chan Stolp, Gary Heppel, and Craig Feeney traveled to Encinada. Dale Strattin, Rusty Keltner, Tom Jenson, Connie Cleator, Laurie Roberts and alumni Dave Peabody, Mike Russel, Bub Roberts, Dave Szalav and Gene Melbourne were in San Felipe.

Kim Hill, Pal Milla and Jimmy Swanson visited Juimos Bay; Dave Delaney, alumni Nancy Keller and Betti Mayo went to Hawaii; Terry Vinson was in Idaho; Marty Mayo took off for Arizona, and Kathy Holberg traveled to Colorado.

Instead of the traditional rabbits or chicks, Paul Peeden and Jackie Kresman received dogs this holiday season. Paul has an Irish Setter he's named Sean Mozambique, and Jackie is the new master of a black Labrador retriever puppy.

* * *

The great Janis Joplin and her new group appeared at the Sports Arena in late March. Also playing were Chicago Transit Authority and the Steve Miller Blues Band.

Seen at the concert were: Vicky Baker, Candy Nickols, Dennis Holliday, Heidi Le Fleur, Keith Reed, Chan Stolp, Joanne Puhrman, Leslie Lutes, Susie Saunders, and Craig Feeney.

* * *

Saturday the Community Concourse will be the noise-spot of the city—Mothers of Invention with Frank Zappa and Country Joe and the Fish will perform.

* * *

Craig Feeney, his Australian house guest, Chan Stolp, and Steve Waterman went up to L.A. to see the widely acclaimed musical, "Hair."

* * *

Candy Nickols celebrated her 18th birthday on April Fool's Day.

* * *

Wendy Utz is entertaining her cousins from Bridgeton, N. J. for two weeks. The two boys seem to be enjoying California: the beach, the mountains, Sea World, Disneyland and Universal Studios. As opposed to an extra week of school—who wouldn't?

Mesa plans address by Unruh

Jesse Unruh will be the guest speaker at Mesa College today at noon in the Apolliad Theater.

Unruh was Speaker of the California Assembly from 1961 to 1969.

As an assemblyman, he was the author of major legislation. The Unruh Civil Rights Act of 1959 prohibits discrimination in the state's business accommodations and has been applied to housing.

The Unruh Credit Act of 1959 protects consumers in the field of installment purchases, and a law prohibiting job discrimination because of age bears his name.

His 1964 education act increased state aid to schools, reduced classroom size in the first three grades, and provided incentives for organizational reforms in education administration.

Mr. Unruh's lecture is the fourth in a series of current affairs lectures sponsored by the Associated Students of Mesa College.

REAL ESTATE CORNER

By MAURICE J. SIEGEL, Realtor

"Shall I buy a house?" is a question asked by many. From the standpoint of sentiment, there is only one answer — as soon as possible you should own your own home. Around the word "home" are woven life's most rewarding feelings. A home owner usually takes pride in how his city is maintained. Communities are strengthed by home ownerships.

Many a successful real estate investor learned his fundamentals by purchasing a house. Home ownership is a business advantage. Credit is more easily given to a home owner.

You get pleasure from tinkering about and fixing up your property.

Most persons do not save willingly and consistently. A home being purchased encourages thrift.

Your Realtor can help you to find the house which will become your home.

Do you have special real estate problems? Why not let us solve them! At SIEGEL REALTY our twenty-five years of experence assures you of the finest quality and service. We cover all aspects of the realty investment business at SIEGEL REALTY, 4170 Voltaire St., 223-7147. Open 8 to 6, 7 days a week.
